

Post Covid-19 First Aid Response SARS NCOV2

Course content

- How the SARS infection can spread from person to person
- How FARs can break the chain of infection
- Infection control Standard precautions
- Hand Hygiene techniques
- When hand Hygiene should be preformed
- How to select appropriate PPE based on risk assessment
- How to remove and dispose of gloves
- Respiratory Hygiene cough and sneezing Etiquette
- Providing CPR for people in cardiac arrest
- The health protection Surveillance centres screening case
- Definition for Covid 19
- Dealing with a patient that has suspected Sars-19
- How FARs can look after their own physical and mental health
- Precautions that must be taken when Oxygen is being delivered
- Avoiding oral and nasal suctioning
- This course will take approximately an hour can be delivered to 8 people at a time.
- Caring for a patient with suspected covid-19